

Highlights from March Meeting

Membership Agreements and New Member Questionnaires

- Membership agreements and member questionnaires were distributed to all members. Please make sure to return these to Teddy Jackson if you have not already done so.

Summit Art Gallery at Saint Luke's

- Jackie Chamberlain informed members that Summit Art will still have part of the display cabinet outside the Gift Shop. (The other half will be for Saint Luke's to display their awards.) Jackie will be changing out the display on Wednesday, March 17th from 1-1:30 p.m. to more of a spring theme. If you are interested in displaying your work here, please contact Jackie.

Lee's Summit Symphony – Saturday, March 13, 2009 at Lee's Summit High School

- 12 Summit Art artist have signed up to be apart of this event.
- Mark your calendars for the Lee's Summit Symphony Family Concert on May 8th.

Longview Art and World Music Festival – Tom Mallot

- The deadline for the LAWMF 2010 poster contest is on April 17, 2010.
- Thank you for members who returned their art fair committee surveys and offering your help and support.
- Grant writing and fundraising for the art fair is underway. Tom would like each member to submit 1-3 leads of businesses who might be interested in supporting the art fair. He will need the name of the company, contact name, address, and phone number.

Just a quick update before posting: All votes received, making up a majority, have supported Summit Art managing GOT ART Gallery on Third. Our journey begins...

Got Art – Plan A or Plan B

- The membership was presented with two plans on using the gallery, GOT ART. Members were allowed to ask questions and discuss opinions. Then members voted on which plan they felt was the best for Summit Art. Officers will attempt to followup with member, who have not voted.
- Plan A – Summit Art manages the gallery and receives income from the activities at GOT ART. Summit Art pays $600 per month to help cover the cost of utilities.
- Plan B – The Nettervilles manage the Got Art gallery. Summit Art pays $255 for office space only.

Summit Art Scholarship Committee

- The $400 Summit Art received from the Art Festival has been moved into the scholarship fund, resulting in $1,500 for 2010 scholarships!
- Pat Betteridge reported that scholarship(s) will go to seniors in high school who plan to major in art at the college level and have an outstanding portfolio.
- The Scholarship Committee will judge the portfolios and applications to decide fairly who will receive the scholarships.

Nomination Committee Formed with volunteer from the floor

- A slate of officers will be presented to membership in April.
- Anyone wishing to be considered or to nominate someone for an officers position should call Jen Behymer.

Program – Drayton Riley – Insuring Your Artwork

- Drayton Riley is an insurance agent at State Farm Insurance. He gave information to the artist about insurance coverage and various policies.

April's Meeting

- Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, April 7th at 6:30 p.m. at Saint Luke's.
