

Highlights from April Meeting

Summit Art Gallery at Saint Luke's

- Carole Gray let the membership know the brochures for the St. Luke's gallery will be ready soon, hopefully next month. They will be posted around the hospital indicating where art is located.

Lee's Summit Symphony Family Concert – Saturday, May 8, 2010 at Lee's Summit High School

- Summit Art will be sponsoring the children's table from 5-7 p.m. If you are interested volunteering, please contact Jackie Chamberlain.

Longview Art and World Music Festival – Tom Mallot

- The LAWMF 2010 poster contest entries are due on April 17, 2010.
- Any Summit Art artists who are interested in participating in the art fair needs to let Tom Mallot know by the end of May.

Nominations Committee for New members

- Jen Behymer proposed the slate of new officers to take to the board for approval. They are Teddy Jackson – President, Teresa Keene - VP Marketing, Wendy Wegmann, - VP Artist Relations, Ramon Magee – Treasurer, and Lisa Britz - Secretary
- This transition will happen in June. New officers will be in charge in July.
- Thank you to all the present officers for their time and energy they have given to Summit Art.

Planning Committee – Jennylynne Gragg

- Jennylynne presented the new mission, vision, strategies and goals statement the planning committee is proposing for Summit Art. Any input on these statements should to be e-mailed to Jennylynne.

Summit Art Scholarship Committee

- Pat Betteridge stated the deadline for the Summit Art scholarship will be on April 16th. This scholarship is available for high school seniors interested in pursuing an art degree.

Got Art

- A work schedule is needed and consistent hours for May and forward.
- A group show will be in June and several members volunteered for the committee.
- The framed poster of Lee's Summit 2010 Creative Community poster given to Summit Art will be hanging at Got Art!!!

Summit Bank of KC Artist Reception

- Randomly three selected artist who have not exhibited at Summit Bank will be chosen to exhibit on May 20th from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
- Summit Bank is also partnering with Campbell Middle School and Meadow Lane Elementary to exhibit student's work along with Summit Art artists' work.
- Summit Art will create a Kids' Art Basket for the drawing.

Celebration on Fascination – May 8, 2010

- Formally know as the Chalk Walk, this is free to the public with a large attendance anticipated. Lee's Summit high school and middle school students will create the pastel pathways.
- All artwork will be completed by noon and jazz band and robotic teams at 3:00 p.m.

Program – Teresa Craig – Photos from Cyprus

- Our own Summit Art member, Teresa Craig, presented her photography from the time she lived in the Middle East. Teresa shared her photos and inspirational stories. She said, a photo says more than a thousand words!!! Thank you Teresa for this amazing presentation!!!

April's Meeting

- Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, May 5th at 6:30 p.m. at Saint Luke's. Our presenter will be Tanya Hartman!!!